Using a Predictive Function to Build an Ensemble of Neural Network Ensembles.

The Problem
The search space of architectures $\mathcal{A}$ for an optimal ensemble is vast, making it challenging to construct an optimal ensemble.

Predictive function
It is proposed to use a function that can determine the similarity between models for their subsequent combination.